

Endurance: I will keep doing what is right no matter what happens!

Write the Main Point on a sheet of paper in large handwriting. Take turns as a family rewriting the Main Point, getting smaller and smaller each time you write it, until you can't write it any smaller.

Bible Verse: "So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you." 1 Peter 4:19 NLT

Read the Bible Story together: Paul and Barnabas keep preaching after being praised and abused. (Acts 14:8-20)

Ask your child if there has ever been a time when they wanted to quit something. Why or why not?

No Matter What

Endurance is the ability to keep going even when the going gets tough. You need to keep going and doing what needs to be done, regardless if things are going good, or not so good. Describe to your child a time when you wanted to quit doing something. Did you choose to quit or to keep going? What were the results of the choice you made? Put your heads together as a family, and decide to do something for an entire week. Maybe go on a nightly family walk or bike ride. You could decide to not watch the television all week. Whatever you decide to do, work together to make it through the week and not give up, even when it seems hard to do. Encourage your child to take the things they learn about endurance during the week and apply them to other areas of their life.
