Matthew 27:45-28:8

One Super Sunday, Jesus visited Jerusalem. People lined up to welcome Him. A few days later, Jesus ate dinner with His friends and told them that it was almost time for Him to finish His special job. After He finished His job, He was going away. His friends were sad, but He told them He would see them again. Jesus prayed for His friends, and they all began walking toward the garden. Just then, soldiers came and took Jesus away. Jesus' friends were scared, so they ran away.

Jesus was very special, and He did very special things that no one else could do. He showed God's love to people, He made sick people better, and He always helped people who needed Him. Lots of people loved Jesus. But there were some people who were jealous and mad because others loved Jesus so much. The people who were jealous wanted Jesus to go away, even though He had never done anything wrong.

These people were so mean that they wanted Jesus to die. So they took Him up to a hill and they put Jesus on a cross. His family and His friends were there, and they were very sad. Jesus died on the cross. His friends laid His body in a stone tomb and a big rock was rolled in front of it.

Three days later, very early in the morning, as the sun began to rise, Mary walked to the tomb. When she got there, the big stone was rolled away and the tomb was open. Mary looked inside, but Jesus was gone! He had risen from the dead! He was alive again! Mary jumped up and ran to tell the others that Jesus was alive again. Everyone was so happy that Jesus was alive that they wanted to tell as many people as they could about God's love.

Jesus showed God's love in everything He did.
I can show others God's love by what I do.
What can I do to show God's love?
